As the waters recede, a remarkable cast of creatures emerges from the depths. There's Bima, the fearless tiger who faces his deepest fears; Maya, the wise old elephant who remembers a time before the flood; and Surya, the playful otter who finds joy in the midst of adversity.

Together, these extraordinary animals embark on an unforgettable journey of survival and resilience. They learn to adapt to their rapidly changing environment, overcome challenges, and forge unbreakable bonds. Along the way, they discover the true meaning of community and the indomitable spirit that resides within all living beings.
