This exquisite collection, penned by a diverse array of renowned Pagan authors, transports you to a realm where myth, folklore, and imagination intertwine seamlessly. Each story evokes the unique energies and themes of the eight Sabbats, offering a profound and immersive exploration of the seasons and the cyclical nature of life.

Exploring the Wheel of the Year

The Wheel of the Year, a sacred concept in many Pagan traditions, represents the cyclical journey of the Earth and its seasons. Pagan Portals Stories for the Songs of the Year invites you to delve into the essence of each Sabbat, from the vibrant rebirth of Imbolc to the introspective darkness of Samhain.

- Imbolc (February 2nd): Celebrate the return of light with stories of fertility, purification, and new beginnings.

- Ostara (March 21st): Embrace the vernal equinox and the awakening of nature with tales of growth, balance, and renewal.
- Beltane (May 1st): Dance around the Maypole and delve into stories of love, passion, and creativity.
- Litha (June 21st): Bask in the warmth of summer with tales of abundance, fertility, and the sun's peak.
- Lughnasadh (August 1st): Honor the first harvest with stories of gratitude, abundance, and the waning of summer.
- Mabon (September 21st): Celebrate the autumn equinox and the balance of day and night with tales of harvest, reflection, and change.
- Samhain (October 31st): Journey into the realm of the dead with stories of remembrance, honoring ancestors, and the veil between worlds.
- Yule (December 21st): Welcome the return of light at the winter solstice with tales of hope, rebirth, and the promise of a new year.
