Our journey begins with an exploration of ivy's rich history and symbolism. From its ancient origins in Mediterranean gardens to its enduring presence in literature, art, and architecture, ivy has captivated hearts and minds for centuries.

In "The Ivy Now," renowned horticulturalist James Hitchmough delves into the intriguing stories and legends surrounding ivy. Discover how it became a symbol of fidelity, friendship, and everlasting life, weaving its way through cultures and civilizations.

Exploring the Diverse World of Ivy Varieties

The world of ivy is a vast and diverse one, and "The Ivy Now" introduces you to a breathtaking array of varieties.

- English Ivy: The classic ivy that graces countless walls and facades, known for its glossy green leaves and vigorous growth.
- Boston Ivy: A deciduous variety with striking crimson foliage that transforms into a vibrant spectacle during autumn.
- Algerian Ivy: A vigorous climber with large, deeply lobed leaves, adding a touch of exotic charm to any setting.
- Needlepoint Ivy: A delicate and intricate variety with tiny, pointed leaves that create a captivating textural effect.

From the elegant trailing forms to the dramatic cascading varieties, "The Ivy Now" provides a comprehensive guide to selecting the perfect ivy for your garden or home.
