Dear Mr. Fraut:
I am sending you in this a lot of letters, being a very few of many that I have received of a like nature. I ask you to read these letters, which will give you some idea of the encouragement I am receiving in my work.
I call your attention especially to the letter from Gilman Hall, editor of "Ainslee's Magazine," dated Mch 8th in answer to one of mine to him saying that he had decided to remove to New York. I am sure that you will agree with me in thinking that it has the very breath of encouragement. It was my hope to set out last week for New York,
